

Essay contest

My Ten-step Plan to Spread Freedom in my Country

(How) Can Free-Market Ideas Answer Economic and Security Challenges in Europe?

One Issue I would Fix Using Principles of Free-Market

What World – Capitalist or Socialist – do we Live in?

We invite you to write an essay on the chosen topic and submit it by January 20th, 2010, academy@freema.org. The essays will be evaluated according to originality of ideas, innovative approach, critical thinking and thorough work. Works must not be longer than 2000 words (main text and footnotes).

The best authors will be invited to participate in the European Academy for Intellectual Entrepreneurs – a joint project by Lithuanian Free Market Institute (www.freema.org, Lithuania) and the Atlas Economic Research Foundation (<http://atlasnetwork.org>, USA).

The goal of the Academy is to develop the program for finding and training talented young people in Europe (Intellectual Entrepreneurs – IE's), to encourage undertaking innovative activities for principles of individual freedom, responsibility, free market and limited government. European Academy for Intellectual Entrepreneurs (EAIE) enhances the potential for discovery and training the new IE's in Europe, and assists Atlas Economic Research Foundation in discovering and nurturing new talents.

Questions? Contact Ms. Edita Maslauskaitė (edita@freema.org) or Mr. Zilvinas Silenas (zilvinas@freema.org)

